Euro Medium Term Note Programme

Combined programme limit for the Euro Medium Term Note Programme of ASB Finance Limited and Commonwealth Bank of Australia. This Supplement relates to Notes to be issued under such programme by Commonwealth Bank of Australia only.*

This supplement (the “Supplement”) comprises a supplement for Commonwealth Bank of Australia (the “Issuer”) to the Programme Circular dated 24 June 2014 as supplemented on 18 August 2014 (as so supplemented, the “Programme Circular”). The Programme Circular is a base prospectus prepared in connection with the Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the “Programme”) established by the Issuer. This Supplement constitutes a supplementary prospectus for the purposes of Section 87G of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the “FSMA”).

Terms defined in the Programme Circular have the same meaning when used in this Supplement. This Supplement is supplemental to, and should be read in conjunction with, the Programme Circular and any other supplements to the Programme Circular issued by the Issuer. A copy of this Supplement will be made available for inspection at the offices of the Issuer and at the offices of any Paying Agent in the United Kingdom for so long as the Programme remains in existence. This Supplement and the Profit Announcement (as defined below) will be published on the website of the Regulatory News Service operated by the London Stock Exchange at <http://www.londonstockexchange.com/exchange/news/market-news/market-news-home.html>.

The Issuer accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Supplement. To the best of the knowledge of the Issuer (which has taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this Supplement is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

The purpose of this Supplement is to (i) incorporate by reference specified pages of the Profit Announcement into the Programme Circular; (ii) update section B.12 of the Summary of the Programme contained in the Programme Circular to include a summary of the unaudited consolidated interim financial statements of the Issuer for the half year ended 31 December 2014; and (iii) confirm that there has been no significant change in the financial or trading position of the Issuer and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, since the date of its unaudited financial statements prepared to 31 December 2014.

On 11 February 2015, the Issuer published its Profit Announcement (the “Profit Announcement”) for the half year ended 31 December 2014, which includes its unaudited consolidated interim financial statements (including the auditor’s review report thereon) for the half year ended 31 December 2014. At 31 December 2014, the Issuer and its controlled entities had total assets of A$850,714 million, deposits and other public borrowings of A$522,563 million and total capital of A$44,901 million. Net profit after income tax (statutory basis), for the half year ended 31 December 2014, was A$4,535 million. A copy of the Profit Announcement has been filed with the Financial Conduct Authority.

Accordingly, the unaudited consolidated interim financial statements for the half year ended 31 December 2014 and the auditor's review report (set out on pages 51 to 72 (inclusive) and page 74 of the Profit Announcement) of the Issuer shall be deemed to be incorporated in, and form part of, the Programme Circular. The non-incorporated parts of the Profit Announcement are either not relevant for the investor or covered elsewhere in the Programme Circular.

The Summary of the Programme beginning on page 11 of the Programme Circular shall be supplemented to reflect the publication of the Profit Announcement. The Summary of the Programme as so supplemented is set out as the Appendix to this Supplement.

There has been no significant change in the financial or trading position of the Issuer and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, since the date of its unaudited financial statements prepared to 31 December 2014.

If documents which are incorporated by reference themselves incorporate any information or other documents therein, either expressly or implicitly, such information or other documents will not form part of this Supplement for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive (Directive 2003/71/EC) except where such information or other documents are specifically incorporated by reference. Copies of all documents incorporated by reference in the Programme Circular are available on the website of the Regulatory News Service operated by the London Stock Exchange at <http://www.londonstockexchange.com/exchange/news/market-news/market-news-home.html> and can also be obtained from the branch in London of the Issuer and from the London office of Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, as described on page 40 of the Programme Circular.

To the extent that there is any inconsistency between (a) any statement in this Supplement or any statement incorporated by reference into the Programme Circular by this Supplement and (b) any other statement in or incorporated by reference in the Programme Circular, the statements in (a) above will prevail.

Save as disclosed in this Supplement and any supplement to the Programme Circular previously issued, there has been no other significant new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy relating to information included in the Programme Circular since the publication of the Programme Circular.

APPENDIX

Summary of the Programme

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as “Elements”. These Elements are numbered in Sections A – E (A.1 – E.7). This Summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for the Notes and the Issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements. Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in a summary because of the type of securities and issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element should be included in the summary explaining why it is not applicable.

Section A – Introduction and warnings

Element
A.1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • this summary should be read as an introduction to the Programme Circular; • any decision to invest in any Notes should be based on a consideration of the Programme Circular as a whole by the investor; • where a claim relating to the information contained in the Programme Circular is brought before a court, the plaintiff investor might, under the national legislation of the Member States, have to bear the costs of translating the Programme Circular before the legal proceedings are initiated; and • civil liability attaches only to those persons who have tabled the summary including any translation thereof, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of the Programme Circular or it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of the Programme Circular, key information in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in the Notes.
A.2	Certain Tranches of Notes with a denomination of less than €100,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency) may be offered in circumstances where there is no exemption from the obligation under the Prospectus Directive to publish a prospectus. Section D – Risks

Element	Title
D.2	Key risks regarding the Issuer	In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer may become insolvent or otherwise be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There is a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer becoming unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. It is not possible to identify all such factors or to determine which factors are most likely to occur, as the Issuer may not be aware of all relevant factors and certain factors which it currently deems not to be material may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the

		Issuer's control. The Issuer has identified a number of factors which could materially adversely affect its businesses and ability to make payments due under the Notes. These factors include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the Issuer's businesses may be adversely affected by the current disruption in the global credit markets and associated impacts; • a downturn in the Australian and New Zealand economies could adversely impact the Issuer's results; • the Issuer may incur losses associated with its counterparty exposures; • adverse credit market conditions may significantly affect the Issuer's ability to access international debt markets and credit, on which it relies for a substantial amount of its wholesale funding; • adverse financial market conditions or specific Issuer circumstances may significantly affect the Issuer's ability to access domestic and international capital markets; • failure to maintain credit ratings could adversely affect the Issuer's cost of funds, liquidity, access to debt and capital markets, and competitive position; • failure to hedge effectively against adverse fluctuations in exchange rates could negatively impact the Issuer's results of operations; • the Issuer is subject to extensive regulation, which could impact its results; • regulatory actions taken now or in the future may significantly affect the issuer's operations and financial condition; and • reputational damage could harm the Issuer's business and prospects.

D.3	Key risks regarding the Notes	There are also risks associated with the Notes, including a range of market risks as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • if the Issuer has the right to redeem any Notes at its option, this may limit the market value of the Notes concerned and an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds to achieve a similar effective return; • if the Issuer has the right to convert the interest rate on any Notes from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or vice versa, this may affect the secondary market and the market value of the Notes concerned; • the conditions of the Notes may be modified or the Issuer substituted without the consent of the holder in certain circumstances; • the holder may not receive payment of the full amounts due in respect of the Notes as a result of amounts being withheld by the Issuer in order to comply with applicable law; • investors are exposed to the risk of changes in law or regulation affecting the value of Notes held by them; • the Notes will not have any covenant restricting the incurrence of liens for the benefit of other external indebtedness of the Issuer; • there may be no or only a limited secondary market in the Notes, an investor selling Notes in the secondary market may receive less than the investor's initial investment and implicit fees may impact on the price of the Notes in the secondary market; • the value of an investor's investment may be adversely affected by exchange rate movements where the Notes are not denominated in the investor's own currency; and • certain risks related to Notes denominated in Renminbi.
